Work Based on 4Ps of Marketing

We Position our Products or Services with the 4Ps of Marketing

The 4Ps of Marketing illustrates how product, price, place, and promotion work together when a product or service is launched to customers. It is created by Neil Borden in the 1950s to demonstrate the ways companies use advertising and marketing techniques to convert potential buyers into actual customers. Our Products & Services based on These P's.

CodEye Methodology

After understanding the client's industry and requirements, we use agile methodology or waterfall methodology. Whether the goal is to launch a minimum viable product (MVP) in changing market dynamics or deliver a project within a fixed budget and time, we succeed at both. With more than a decade of experience in the IT sector, we have refined our processes to deliver quality solutions.
